

28-16

Baden
RU, CGF

Radio Training Company (Uchebnaya Radio Rota) part of the 313th Radio Intercept Battalion directed by the Radio Intelligence Section of the RU, CGF.

c. The radio training company (Uchebnaya radio rota) is known as sub-section (pod-razdeleniye) #4. It has two platoons. Before subject completed his training, there were 50 students (class of '28) and 30 attached students (class of '29). Subject states that with the arrival of the class of '30 there will be three platoons in the training company. Somewhat prior to subject's defection there were 80 recruits in the company. Each platoon has two sections (see attached chart).

19. Subjects taught at the radio training company are as follows:

- a. Morse alphabet;
- b. Tactics (call signs, radio procedures, etc.). The American broadcasts are known as "Army 1"; the British broadcasts as "Army 2", and the French broadcasts as "Army 3". (Subject was engaged in intercepting "Army 3").
- c. Electricity and radio (basic theory only);
- d. Military justice and the articles of war;
- e. Basic infantry tactics, interior guard, etc.;
- f. Small arms fire;
- g. Physical culture; and
- h. Political indoctrination, etc.